

Gingerbread Hunt Clues

Print and cut out the clues. Make a plan of where each clue will be placed, and in what order you will place them. I turned each clue over and wrote a number on the back. Then I wrote the number, and where it would be placed on a separate sheet of paper (that way it was easy to place the clues quickly!)

Visit amomwithalessonplan.com/gingerbread-man-hunt/ for tips on how to prepare for the Gingerbread Hunt.

Ha, ha, ha and hee, hee, hee,
You'll have to think quick if you want to find me.
I love a good game with a chase and a song.
Here are some clues to help you along.

There are buttons and zippers.
You'll see pockets and sleeves.
You have to come here to get dressed for the day.

It can be hot, warm or cold.
You go in dirty and come out clean.
It rhymes with math.
You'll find soap and shampoo here. □

You like these before bed.
Each has a binding, a cover and a title page.
You'll find a cow jumping over a moon, a brown bear and some green eggs.
Some belong to you; others were borrowed from the library.

Work can be done here, so can play.
There are letters and numbers.
Type a message, or play a game.
There's a keyboard, a monitor and a mouse.

It's comfy and cozy.
It's a place all your own.
It's where the morning sun greets you.
It's the place where you get a kiss good night.

Some are red, some are white and some are green.
These take you from one place to another.
They come in all sizes.
They have 4 wheels and they say vroom!

There are big and small ones.
Each has 2 eyes, 2 ears and a nose.
You cuddle and rock them.
You'll also find bottles and blankets here.

It's the last place you would look.
It's the first place you saw me.
You need this appliance to bake cookies. □

Blank space for writing.

Blank space for writing.

Blank space for writing.

